THE MESSAGE

“El Latino de Hoy”, is the only newspaper in the Pacific Northwest to effectively provide news in Spanish, from virtually every Latin-American country as well as worldwide reports of significant concern to local readers on a weekly basis.

THE MARKET

According to the Census Bureau, U.S. Hispanics are the largest minority in the country. It isn't surprising, then, that a nationally-recognized market research firm recently published figures showing that Hispanic household purchasing power was $863 billion in 2008, up from $452 billion in 2000, and that all market indicators show increased growth in these figures. This means that the Latino market holds enormous economic potential and those companies that target their marketing efforts at Hispanic-Americans stand to benefit by directing their message specifically to these individuals.

“El Latino de Hoy”, is your best link to this market in Oregon & SW Washington.

THE MEDIUM

“El Latino de Hoy”, circulates 25,000 copies weekly (100,000-125,000 monthly), free of charge, to an audience of more than 90,000 each week. Targeted exclusively at Spanish-speaking Oregonian, “El Latino de Hoy”, is read in more than over 33 cities in Oregon & SW Washington.
